'61 Production May Exceed '60 By 2,000 Bales

Frank Mikulec, Jr., of Marak Community, brought in the first bale of cotton at Buckholts last week, opening sign of an anticipated 19,000 - bale crop.

County Agent J. D. Moore said that another bale was ginned at Thorndale Tuesday.

Cotton acreage in Milam County was up for the third year in a row. The 1961 acreage allotted Milam growers is 56,861 acres, an increase of almost 5,000 acres over the 1960 total.

Figuring a one - third bale output, Milam cotton production should bring in about 19,000 bales, 2,000 more than the 1960 total.

Moore said that cotton has had a heavy invasion of insects this year, but rain fall in September will actually determine the per - acre yield.

In reviewing truck crop production, Moore said that watermelon production was particularly successful in the Rockdale area this year.

About $100,000 worth of watermelons by August 1 were sold in South Milam County. Determining factors were the high quality of the melons and a good price, he said.

Maize production will be off the 1960 mark following the withdrawal of about 23,000 acres from production through the 1961 federal grain program. And more than 11,000 acres of corn were placed in the program.

Agricultural Stabilization & Conservation records showed that $331,462 in advance payments went to farmers.

Donald Anderson Will Speak To Lions Club Mon.

Guest speaker for the Lions Club's next meeting, Monday, August 14 will be Donald M. Anderson of Austin, assistant executive secretary for the Texas Medical Association. He will discuss "The Best Medical Care for All Texans."

He will outline positive programs of the Texas Medical Association designed to enhance the quality of medical care, contain health costs and provide more physicians to meet the need of an expanding population.

Anderson received his BA Degree from the University of Texas; his law degree from Uof T. and has done undergraduate and graduate training in Administration and Management from U of T. He has also served five years in the Air Force.

Someone in the Cameron Fire Dept. the other day was wondering why some departments always have a dog on the truck when they take off for a fire.

"Easy," was the reply, "that's to make sure they find the plugs."

Football season is near reality as Cameron faces West here in an opening September 1. Practice begins Monday for the Yoemen and other AA schools in Texas.

Area high schools Buckholts, Rogers, Rosebud, Thorndale, Rockdale will be hitting the pig-skin parade as well.

Three of these teams are on the Cameron schedule this year including Rosebud here September 8, Rogers there September 15 and Rockdale there November 3.

Herald Sports Editor Robert Mann says the Yoemen are touted by a Texas football magazine as early favorite to win 19AA.

Ever notice how August rather creeps up on you and makes you notice the heat more "and enjoy it less?" That's the atmosphere around Cameron as mid -August heat seems to suspend itself amidst the vacationed air.

Since a sensational month of news in July, The Herald staff grooves through almanacs, old newspapers and encyclopedia to find ideas for stories, et al.

102 extends an invitation for those anecdotes and humorous yarns that other Milam Countians would enjoy.

Nothing more interesting than a good human interest story about people . . . Milam County people.

102 - 102 - 102

The dairying industry is on the upbeat in Milam County. We learned this week that a major dairy farm operation is moving into the Cameron area. A number of Milam Countians are now in the tough, but rewarding dairy farm business, truly a seven - day operation. And the signs say more people are coming into Milam County for more dairying . . . further diversification of agriculture.

Ralph Nichols To Head Alcoa's Public Relations

Ralph A. Nichols has been named public relations manager for Aluminum Company of America's Rockdale Works, according to R. R. Sugg, works manager. He succeeds James A. Knight, Jr., who has transferred to Alcoa's Point Comfort works to head that operation's public relations activities.

A native of the Pacific Northwest, Nichols has been in Pittsburgh, Pa., for the past year and a half as assistant editor of The Alcoa News, an employee magazine distributed to some 48,000 employees.

Nichols joined Alcoa in May, 1952, at the Wenatchee works -- one of two Alcoa operating locations in Washington state. At Wenatchee he was in charge of community relations and edited an employee publication.

Before coming with Alcoa, he was assistant manager of the Wenatchee Chamber of Commerce and a newsman for a radio station. He graduated from Washington State University in 1950.

Nichols, his wife Mary Beth, and their three children will arrive in Rockdale about September 1.

MRS. STAFFORD HOSPITALIZED

Mrs. Bettye Stafford entered Providence Hospital in Waco yesterday and will undergo surgery today (Thursday).

Major Dairy Operation

Flordia Firm To Move Here

J. K. Stuart, Florida dairyman, has purchased the 680 - acre Frank Perrin farm northwest of Cameron and will begin operation of a 200-cow dairy farm in about 60 days. The transaction was completed early this week, according to O. G. Tumlinson, of Cameron, who handled the arrangements.

Stuart will build a home and dairy barns on the farm. He will bring in about 200 registered Jersey dairy cattle.

Tumlinson estimated the operation, to be the largest dairying operation in Milam County, will employ about eight to 10 people when in full operation.

It became the fourth dairying operation established in Milam County this year.

Stuart will employ a professional dairyman to operate the farm. Stuart, a resident of Bartow, Florida, will continue to reside there. Tumlinson said Stuart was im-

5 Vehicles Crash Near Thorndale; Two Men Injured

Five vehicles were involved in a collision 8:15 p. m. Friday, injuring two persons and blocking US 79 1 1/2 miles east of Thorndale, for two hours.

State Patrolman Gilbert Smith reported that Jack Johnson, Rt. 1, Thorndale, and Charles Daniel Miller, of San Antonio, were taken to St. Johns Clinic in Taylor for treatment.

A tractor pulling a hay baler, driven by Johnson, was struck in the rear by a 1960 Comet driven by Miller. The auto swung across the centerline, Smith said, and collided with a truck - trailer combination driven by Jim Wilson, Jr., of Montgomery, Ala.

A 1957 Chevrolet driven by Floyd Moerbe, Rt. 2, Thorndale, then struck the rear of the Comet, and a fifth vehicle, a 1955 Chevrolet driven by Robert Fisher, of Three Rivers, hit the rear of Moerbe's car.

It took workmen two hours to clear the highway. The Comet was in collision three different times before the five vehicles came to a halt.

County Agents Notes

Asphids Cause Dew On Trees

By J. D. Moore
Milam County Agent

Honey dew on pecan and shade trees is caused by asphids (Plant lice) feeding on the trees.

These soft bodied insects appear during the summer and fall. They suck sap from the leaves and cause acrual damage only when heavy infestations occur. The yellow saphids secrete a sticky substance called honeydew.

This material is most noticeable on your automobile after parking under pecan and some shade trees. Also, the honeydew creates an ideal medium for the development of sooty mold fungus.

CONTROL: Asphids may be controlled by spraying the trees with malathion at the rate of one tea-spoon to one gallon of water.

Pecan Phyllorea

(gall on leaves) is caused by a soft bodied insect which is closely related to the asphids. This insect passes the Winter in the egg stage in crevices in the bark. In the spring, the egg hatches and the tiny nymph feeds on the tender, young growth, apparently

Beef Production Alternate Source Of Farm Income

COLLEGE STATION — Crop restrictions are forcing some farmers to consider other means of making money from the farm. One possibility is the raising of beef calves, says U. D. Thompson, extension animal husbandman. They offer a way to increase the value of farmproduced roughage and grain.

How would such a system operate Here is one possibility. Calves which are either bought or raised by you would weigh about 400 pounds this fall, and they would be weaned and ready for grazing. They could be grazed on permanent pasture, cotton fields after harvest, sorghum field stubble or any other crop residue. These sources of roughage are considered good feed if they are supplemented with cottonseed meal or cake, says Thompson.

If none of these feeds are available, then silage or hay crops need to be included in the farming system. Even if crop residues are available, you will need a supply of silage or hay if you plan to full feed the calves. The idea is to provide all the grazing possible from crops like oats, wheat or winter legumes during the fall and winter.

As long as there is sufficient green grazing there is no need for any additional feed. But on days when the cattle can't graze, they should be fed a roughage and about ½ pound of a 41 percent protein supplement. It is important to keep the calves gaining at least one pound daily during the grazing period.

The main thing is keep the feeding simple, says Thompson. A protein supplement, a grain and a roughage, properly fed, will do a good fattening job. Ask your county agent for a copy of L-507, "A System of Farm Steer Production."

New Development Program Starts In Rural Areas

COLLEGE STATION — In line with Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman's recent announcement that the Rural Areas Development program had reached the operational stage, the Texas Agricultural Extension Service has held orientation meetings on the program in east and northeast districts of the state.

It is in this section of Texas, said Frank Sheppard, extension resource development specialist, that counties are located. He pointed out that some 40 of these counties were listed because they had either been participating since 1956 in the rural development program or had indicated a desire to do so. Other counties were added to the state list on the basis of farm income figures. He said other counties may be added to the eligible list and some of those now on the list may not be able to qualify for federal grants and loans under the program.

Sheppard said the new program as outlined under Public Law 87-27 is not a giveaway deal and that it was hoped that local and private funds would be used extensively to supplement any loans or grants.

He emphasized that the program is strictly volunteer and that participation is up to local leaders and interest. It is, he said, the responsibility of the State Agricultural Extension Service to provide the organizational and educational leadership in setting up development committees to handle the program from the local to the state level. Also the provide educational assistance to local leaders and private groups with regards to total economic development programs within counties or areas.

Much progress, he concluded, has been made under the rural development program and projects now ready for operation may be able to qualify for loans or grants.

FAITH ONLY...

Quite often in this age we hear of those who say that ALL anyone has to do to be saved is believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God. It is undeniably true that one must have faith to be saved (Jno. 8:24; Eph. 2:8; Heb. 11:6), but this is not the real problem! The question is, "Will faith ONLY save?" Let us see. —

THE CHIEF RULERS — "Nevertheless among the chief rulers also many BELIEVED on him, but because of the Pharisees, they did NOT confess him, . . ." (Jno. 12:42). Jesus declared, "Whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I ALSO deny before my Father . . ." (Mt. 10:33). Could these BELIEVERS, who neither loved nor confessed Christ, be saved ? ?

THE DEVILS — "the DEVILS also BELIEVE, and tremble" (Jas. 2:19), but there can be no question at all about their fate ! ! It is no wonder that "though I have ALL FAITH, so that I could remove mountains, and have NOT charity (or love), I am NOTHING" (1 Cor. 13:2).

SAUL OF TARSUS — When Saul became a believer in Christ, he asked, "What wilt thou have me to do?" (Ac. 9:6). Christ told him to wait in Damascus where he would receive instructions. After three days of fasting and prayer, he was told, "Arise, and BE BAPTIZED, and WASH away thy SINS, calling on the name of the Lord" (Ac. 22:16). Faith ONLY did NOT save him ! !

What is YOUR Conviction

About this vital issue?

. . . Examine the following

Study of New Testament

TRUTH to see if

YOUR Faith Will Save.

THE BIBLE ANSWER — The phrase, "faith only," occurs but once in the Bible, and then it is found to read, ". . . by WORKS a man is justified, and NOT by faith ONLY" (Jas. 2:24). The principle of man's duty is summarized in Gal. 5:6, ". . . FAITH which WORKETH by LOVE." A person cannot really expect the grace of God to save him, unless he is an OBEDIENT BELIEVER ! ! Read Heb. 5:8-9 and 1 Jno 2:3-5. Do not be misled, but rather put your faith to work in doing the Lord's will His way. Jesus said, "If a man love me, he WILL KEEP my words" (Jno. 14:23). Do not be willing to accept less than the WHOLE counsel of God ! ! (Ac. 20:27).

Humble, Schiller Accepted In Boy Scout Society

Mark Humble and Bobby Schiller were accepted into the Order of the Arrow, an honorary camping society of the Boy Scouts of America.

The two were eligible for the honor upon completion of a week's camping at Camp Tahuaya during June. On August 4 they reported back to the camp for the summer convention of the Order of the Arrow.

To be in the order Scouts must have at least fifteen days of camping experience among other requirements. Its members have two major goals: to serve their units by making them better and stronger and to promote and strengthen Scout Camping.

Humble and Schiller are members of Troop 52 with Felix Matula Jr. as scoutmaster. They are sponsored by the Cameron Council of Knights of Columbus.

Larry Schiller was accepted into the brother hood section of the Order of the convention. He and Bobby are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schiller. Mark is the son of Judge and Mrs. Don Humble.

VIEW ON SPORTS

— WITH ROBERT MANN —

Dizzy Dean, ex - pitching great, will long be remembered for his antics on and off the baseball field. Today he is known by housewives and people that ordinarily aren't baseball fans, but tune in to TV's "game of the week" visit with "ole Diz."

During his twelve years with the St. Louis Cardinals, my home-to team, he accumulated a list of pranks, fights and tall tales, that no one in baseball history can match. (With the possible exception of Rabbit Manville).

Dean thinks that the big-league ballplayer of today is too soft and peaceable. "The Cards had one pitcher," he claims, "who won fourteen straight games in a period of twenty - four days. When he lost his fifteenth game, 1-0, the manager fined him fifty bucks."

Thus go the tales of Dizzy Dean. He once told a reporter in his usual boasting manner, "What a baseball needs is wild men like we used to have on the old St. Louis Cards - the gashouse gang - guys like Rip Collins, Pepper Martin, Frank Frisch and me."

"What was the salary scale in those days, as compared to now," asked the reporter.

"That," explained Dean, "is what drove us wild."

VOS

A story goes that while the Cards were playing Chicago in the windy city, Dean strolled up to the cub batting cage in his street clothes three hours before the game started and asked if he could take a couple of cuts.

Anxious to show Diz up the Cub batting practice hurler uncorked two fast balls down the center of the plate, both of which Dean slammed over the left field fence, then he casually turned to the gathering crowd and remarked, "And I'm the weakest hitter on the team."

VOS

Despite his bragging and loud way, Dean was never known to say anything he couldn't back up.

In a world series game he was clobbered on the jaw by a ball when caught between first and second. He was carried off the field but somehow managed to str: the next day's game for the Cardinals and was bombarded by the showers in the early innings.

A reporter asked him if he thought the blow on the jaw was the reason for his poor performance and he replied in a didn't care who heard attitude, "No. I just didn't have what it took today, but wait until next time."

They waited and once again he backed up what he said, "turning in an excellent winning performance two days later.

Jehovah's Witnesses Hold Austin Meet, 504 Hear Speech

Fred Starnes of the Cameron Congregation, returning from the three-day assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses in Austin reports that a peak attendance of 504 heard K. R. Savoy of New York deliver the specially arranged talk "The Twentieth Century in Bible Prophecy."

The convention, organized by the Watchtower Society of Brooklyn, New York and attended by Witnesses from 15 south-central Texas congregations, expressed appreciation for the helpful suggestions given to cope with the problems that confront people today in a world nearing the breaking point. The assembly program was built around 23 Bible discourses discussing subjects on kindness, unity, dedication, conduct and the ministry.

Friday evening Mr. Savoy spoke on the convention theme of "Walk in the Name of Jehovah" and stated, "Never has it been more mandatory for people to turn to God than in this present Space Age." He continued, "To find peace we must first find God. He urged his listeners to follow up right instruction with vigorous action."

Saturday's program featured a Baptismal service in which new ministers were immersed. "This is the final step on their ordination as ministers," Starnes said.

Cameron delegates joined with hundreds of other conventioners Saturday and Sunday in personally inviting Austin residents to attend the Sunday afternoon program. Sunday afternoon Savoy asked his audience the question, "Would you stake your life on a weatherman's forecast for tomorrow? Then why trust in long-range predictions made by humans? The time is ripe for mankind to turn to a better source of prophecy than what imperfect humans can offer. The source is God His book of prophecy is the Holy Bible."

Veterans Living In Central Texas May Get Loans Direct From Waco

Veterans living in the 34 counties in the Central Texas area may negotiate home and farmhouse loans directly from the Veterans Administration, P. J. Mims, manager of the VA Regional Office in Waco, said today.

Veterans of World War II and Korea have been given additional time in which to apply for a GI loan by legislation signed recently by the President, Mims pointed out.

Central Texas counties in which direct home and farmhouse loans may be made are: Anderson, Bastrop, Bell (except cities of Temple and Killeen), Bosque, Brazos, Brown, Burleson, Burnet, Cherokee, Coleman, Comanche, Concho, Coryell (except city of Copperas Cove), Erath, Falls, Fayette, Freestone, Hamilton, Hill Lampasas, Lee Leon Limestone, Llano, McLennan (except city of Waco and incorporated towns of Beverly Hills, Bellmead, Lacy-Lakeview), Madison, Milam, Mills, Navarro, Robertson, Runnels, San Saba, Travis (except city of Austin and adjacent territory within 10 miles radius of city limits), and Williamson.

Mims said the new law increases from the present $13,500 to $15,000 the maximum an eligible veteran may get from the government as a direct loan. A total of $1.2 billion over the next six years for use in direct loans by the VA was authorized.

The law provided a phase-out eligibility formula under which a veteran will be eligible for a GI loan for 10 years from the date of his discharge from his last period of wartime service, plus an additional year of eligibility for each three months of active wartime service.

Eligibility of a World War II veteran under the new law may not extend beyond July 25, 1967, in any case, nor beyond January 31, 1975, for any Korea veteran. A veteran discharged because of a service-connected disability will be eligible to apply until these final cut-off dates.

The new law provides that eligibility shall not terminate in any case prior to July 25, 1962, for a World War II nor prior to January 31, 1965 for a Korea veteran, the cut-off dates under the old law.

The direct loans are limited to specifically designated rural areas, towns and small cities where the Administrator of Veterans Affairs has determined that private mortgage money is not available for GI loans.
